Joshua,
Your smile and great personality have brought us such joy. We are very proud of the young man you have become. Good luck at North

Denver,
At last all your hard work has paid off. Congratulations on your graduation and good luck in high school.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Steve,
You were always a joy as a child and we're so proud of you. Have fun in High School and remember, with hard work, your dreams will come true.
Love,
Dad, Mom, Samantha and Trevor

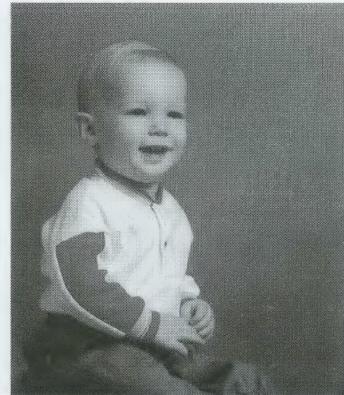

Kristen,
Congratulations and best wishes to our little princess who has become a beautiful young lady. We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. Continue to work hard and remember to have fun! May all your dreams come true.
We love you
Mom, Dad, Marc and "The Gang"

Devon,

Wow, the years fly by! We are so proud of you! At North, you will find adventure, accomplishment and fun!

Peace & Love,
Mom & Dad

Kyle,

We are so proud of you
As you head off to high school remember,
Never bend your head
Always hold it high
Look the world straight in the eye
Love,
Mom, Dad and Michael

Hey Jenn,

Love you; proud of you; talk to us; stay focused...Just be yourself. Always with you.

Love,
Us

Jordan,

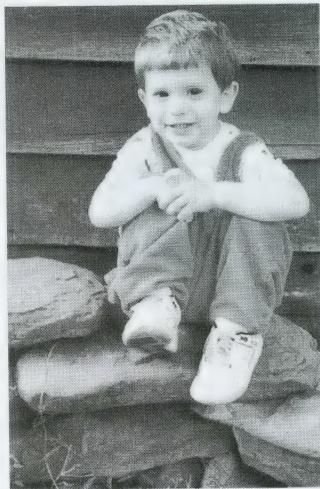

Congratulations on your 8th grade graduation. We are very proud of you and love you very much.
Mom and Dad

Caitlin,

Whether it's a courtroom, an operating room, the White House or an artist's studio, your choices are limitless. Remember to always live your life as an exclamation, not an explanation. We are so proud of all you have accomplished. Be Happy! With our love and prayers always,
Mom, Dad, Kelsey, and Brendan

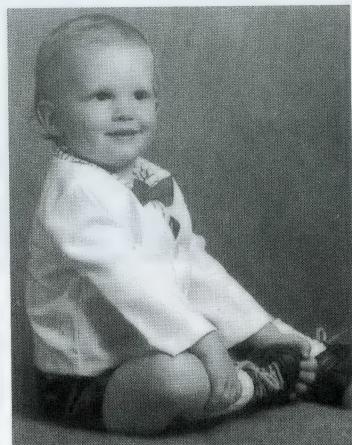

Andrew

Let this be the beginning of a wonderful journey on the road less traveled. Find happiness along the way and let the road always lead you home!
Love always, Mom, Dad, Morgan and Spencer

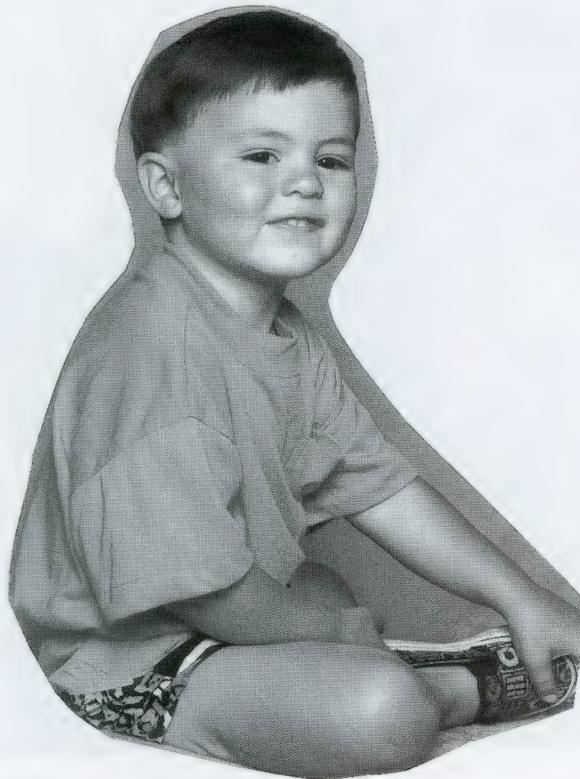

Mandy,

You have made our life more special than we could have possibly imagined.
We love you.
Mom, Dad & Sam

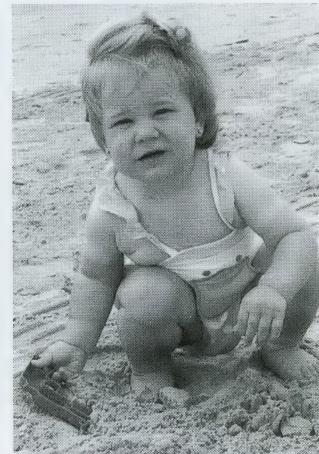

Richard,

How quickly these wonderful years have passed! You are so very special to us and always will be. Do your best and be happy in life.
Love, Mom and Dad

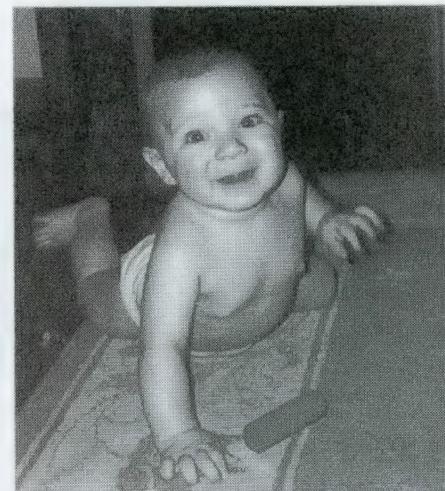

Charlie,
You were the sweetest baby and have grown into a wonderful young man. We give you love and hope for success in the years to come...
Mom and Dad II

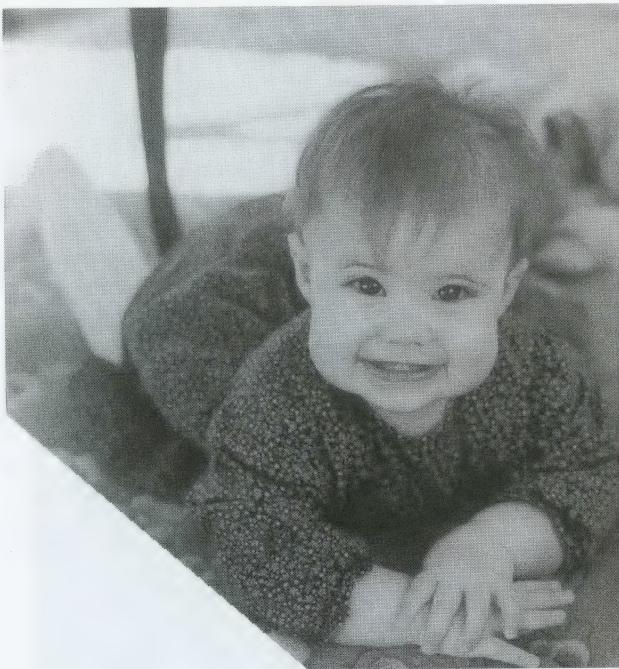

Danielle,
You have grown from a wonderful baby to a beautiful young lady. May all your dreams and wishes come true.
We love you,
Mom, Dad, Matthew, Erica & Alexis

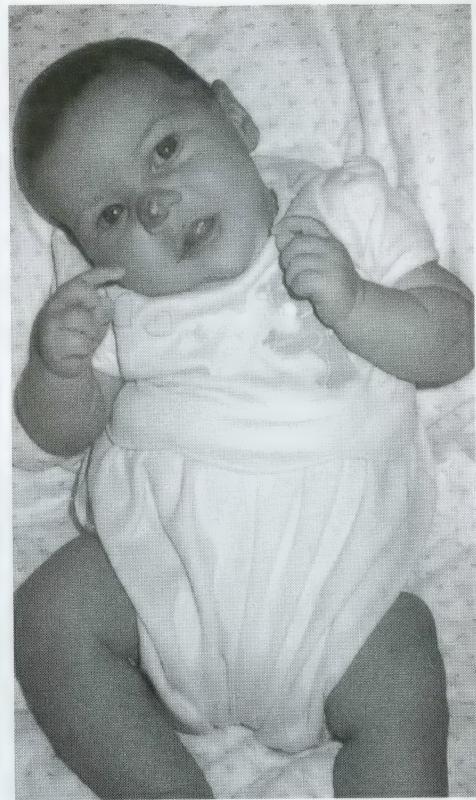

Dan,
Congratulations! We knew you could do it. Continue to stay focused, work hard, have fun and your high school years will be interesting and exciting.
Love, Mom and Dad

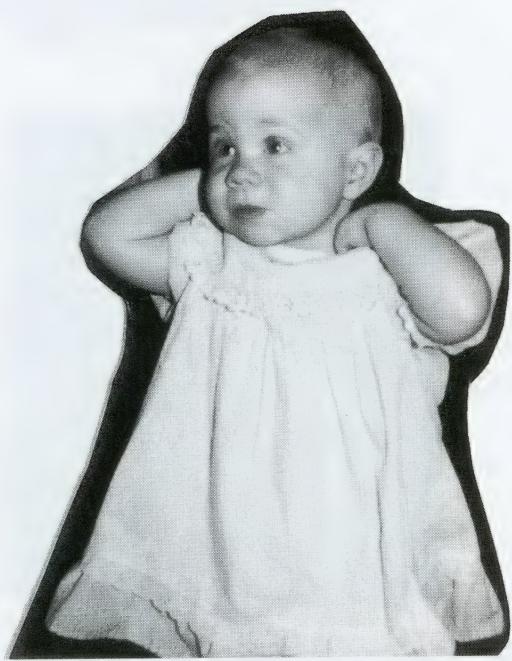

David,
FORTY WORDS TO EXPRESS
ALL THE YEARS OF HAPPINESS
ARRIVE WITH FIRST SNOW OF THE YEAR
HE HAS ALWAYS BEEN OUR DEAR
LOOKING AHEAD AT TIME TO COME
DAVID WILL ALWAYS BE NUMBER ONE

Olivia,
Congratulations! We Love You,
Mommy, Dad, Jo-Jo and Liza

To Amanda,
All our love. Best of luck at North.
Mom, Dad and Jeff

Sandra,
With your leadership qualities, perseverance, enthusiasm for life and many friends, you can accomplish great things. We are proud of you.
Love,
Mommy, Daddy, Melissa, Christina and Caitlin

Dearest Sarah Rose,
I LOVE YOU
Dad

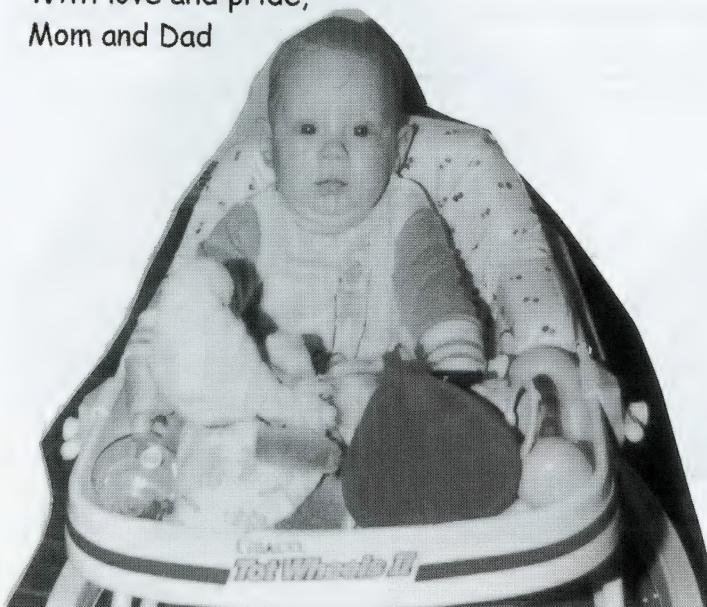

Leah,

Ever so gently we once held you in our hands. And as you grew, your wings grew strong and restless. Now as you seek the wind, soaring splendidly to discover your own triumph, pain and joy, you no longer think you need the hands that held you. But know that you are forever cradled in our hearts.

With love and pride,

Mom and Dad

Kevin,

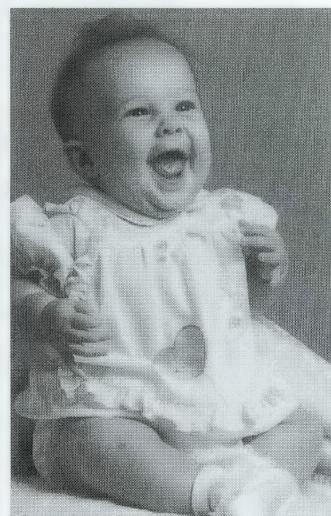

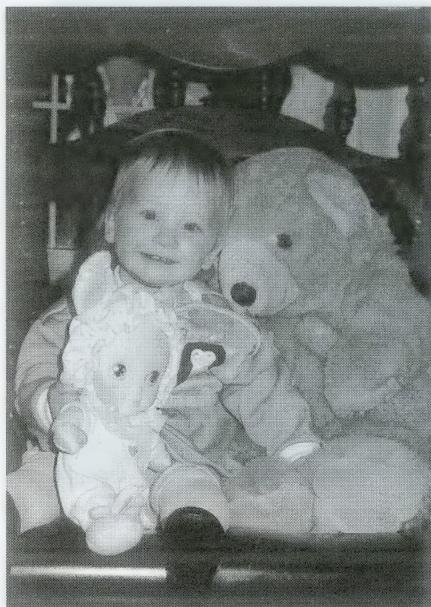

We made it through 8th grade! High School, here we come!

Love Mom, Dad & Ally

Christen ,

Climb every mountain, Ford every stream, Follow every rainbow, 'Till you find your dream. With your determination and enthusiasm you can accomplish anything!

Love, Mom, Dad, John and Candy

Tara,

It's hard to believe you are so grown up and going to high school. I wish you success, but more importantly, happiness. Remember...I love you.

Mom

Ian

We are extremely proud of your artistic accomplishments over the past year. Best wishes for a successful and creative future.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Douglas and Kelly

To Dale-

Do ordinary things in extraordinary ways,
Wish on all your stars,
And don't ever forget,
even for a day
How very special you are
Love,
Mom and Dad

Michael,

You are one in a million! Good luck in high school and always believe in yourself.
Love Always, Mom, Dad, Paul, Karin & Hannah

Peter,

Congratulations on conquering the jungle of FTS! Now comes the easy part: High School! Good luck!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Sonja and Trapper

Samantha,

You are a smart, beautiful and wonderful daughter. I wish you nothing but success and happiness in your life. I love you very, very much.

Love,
Mom

Chris,

With your great intuition and love of Lacrosse, we know you will go far in life. We are very proud of you. Good luck.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jason and Jen

Tom,

This is the time for bigger steps, deeper footprints and courageous paths that lead to a brilliant future. Good luck in your successful journey.

Love...Mom, Dad, Jessica & Katherine

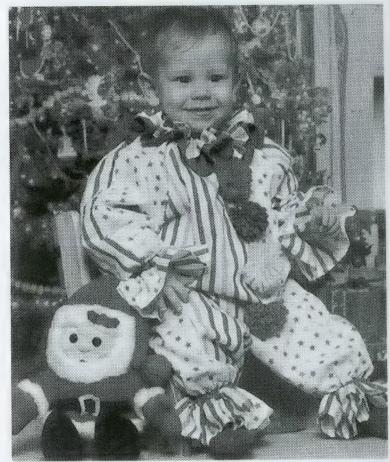

Donna Maria

How proud we are to see our little princess grow into a beautiful young lady, with a heart of gold. Much success and happiness!

We love you, Mom & Dad

Curran,
Congratulations on all your hard work & best wishes for a great future!
Mom

Serine,
You are our shining star, full of life, love and kindness. May your dreams be fulfilled for the joy you give us. Stand strong girl...friend!
Love Mom, Dad, Fabienne, Bijou, Candy, Rawool and Jose
(those crustaceans)!

Sarah,
You have been our hope and joy! You are such a beautiful young lady! Hard to believe it's a challenge, but I still love my baby Sarah.
Love Always and Forever,
Robert, Phyllis, Bobby and Mary!

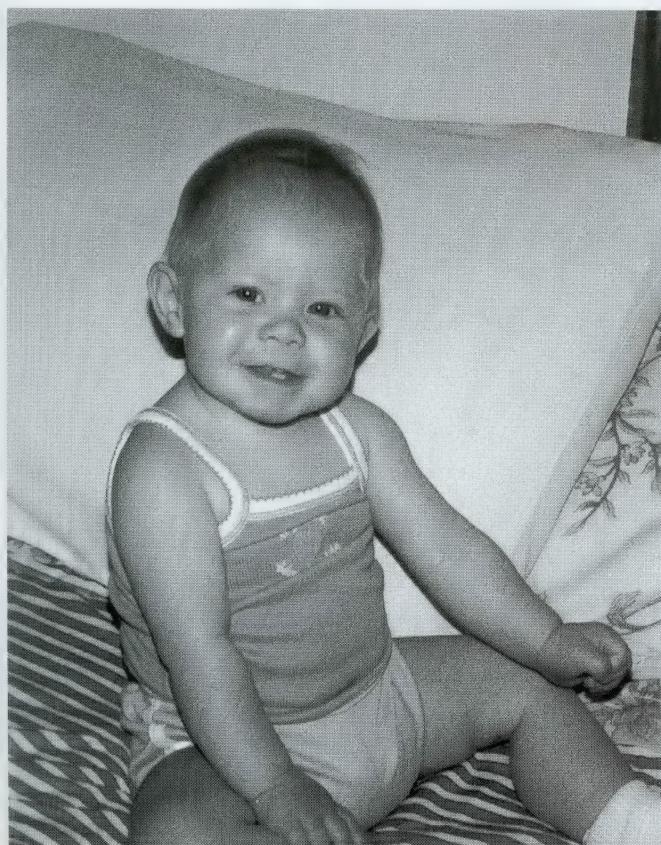

Andre,
Best of luck at North. We love you.
Mom and Dad

Steve,

You have grown to be all we thought you would be. The years have gone by so fast but I promise (mom) I'll try not to cry! We are so proud!

Love, Mom and Bruce

Harley,

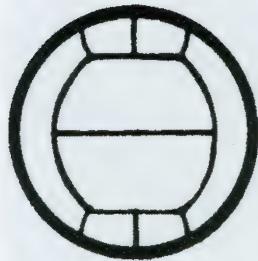

Congratulations on graduating the eighth grade. May you reach for all and get all that you wish for.

With all our love, Brat!

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

Ms Miller: To the 8th grade class, I leave you with a sense of hope for all your future dreams. May you always find that which you seek.

I, Mandy, leave Soapbox Better and Knuckles The Green Man The Horse to Mullet's Jelly Cloud.

I, Stephen Steltz, leave my playstation to my little sister.

I, Caitlin Marie Flanigan, leave all the good times, great laughs, and unforgettable friendships to all 8th graders to come, especially my sister Kelsey.

I, Olivia Hammesfahr, leave all the green paint to Sarah and Mandy.

I, Sarah Ashcroft, just leave.

I, Amanda Becker, leave my locker number "4" to Brittany Eustace and my brother to all teachers to aggravate them.

I, Steve Faulkner, will leave my colored skills to the 6th and 7th grader b-ball players for them to live up to. My 6th grade injuries to anyone who can get injuries every day . . . and my cookie frenzy to the lunch ladies who looked at me funny when it happened.

I, Jenning Foran, leave my dance/cheerleader skills to Emelie Milcarek, Marla Frezza & Carolyn Coccorese.

I, Leah Carianne Greif, leave all the b-ball fights with Kingwood and Holland to Pam, Molly, Meg, Jordan and Alison.

I, MJ Greulich, leave Hannah to conclude the Greulich legacy. I also leave her my accidents around doors in Mrs. Tigue's room.

I, Jordan Hoffman, leave my hyperness to Shannon H., my lack of common sense to my brother, Alex, and my bird food to Dennis.

I, Charlie Howett, leave my little brother Dave Grasse to all the teachers to create havoc.

We, Thomas Hyland, and Chris Luster leave our front row seats in Dr. Yate's class to Cody.

I, Samantha Kimple, leave all the good times during basketball season to my Lady Lions, Pam, Molly, Allison, Meg, and Jordan.

I, Danielle Kriegl, leave all my good times and memories to all the 7th graders.

I, Curran Leeds, would like to leave my bag-popping skills to Auten. My the "pop" be with you.

I, Josh Murphy, leave my amazing dunking abilities to Ryan Siegel and Chris DeRites.

I, Andrew Parker-Klimpel, willingly leave the GEPA test to anyone stupid enough to take it. I also leave the challenge to have more fun in the Gettysburg hotel room than Kyle and I did.

I, Sarah Posluszny, leave my basketball jersey to Jordan Lantanzio.

I, Harley Marie, leave my bottom locker to Sara Kunzman and my sister to all of the teachers here at Franklin to annoy them.

I, Daniel Specht, leave my front row seat in Math class to anyone unlucky enough to get it.

I, Andre Stihi, leave the trailers to the 7th grade. I also leave my corner spot in Dr. Yate's room to whoever earns it, and all my sprains from gymnastics to Mr. Howell.

I, Dale Taylor, leave the pathetically small soccer team to anyone who has the urge to join it.

I, Ian Torp, leave all my motorcycle gear and my motorcycle to anyone who wants it.

I, Peter Urmston, leave my shortness and incredible three point shooting ability to Ryan Siegel, Matt Marquis, and Cody Blihar.

I, Tara Whitman, leave my first row seat in Dr. Yate's class to my sister Rachel Whitman, all my gum to Mr. Howell and all my lunch/recess detentions to Dr. Yate's.

I, Kristen Wirasnik, leave my lack of common sense and the good and bad times here at Franklin, to my brother, Marc.

I, Sandra Nicole McGourty, leave my #7 softball, and my #37 volleyball jerseys to my sweet little sister, Caitlin. I also leave my #21 jersey in b-ball to Morgan & Chicago. I leave all my aggression and fights in b-ball to my lil' brut, Meg, Allison, Pam, and Jordan.

I, David James Maxmillion Rosenblum, gratefully leave my reputation and my guitar playing spot in the trailer to any man/women/thing willing enough to take such a burden of a task.

I, Christen Greczylo, leave whipped cream eating and milk drinking races with friends to all future 8th grade girls. I also leave Donna's whining to the next unfortunate person who has to listen to her.

I, Denver Kiczek, leave my lunch table memories to the future 8th grade girls.

I, Donna DeVita, leave all the great times here at Franklin to the future graduates of Franklin Township. Good Luck!
